DAY 7: Udaipur

Monday, 17 November 2025

In the morning, enjoy a drive around Fateh Sagar Lake, which has a garden café on its island. Located nearby are the Folk Museum and Mewar Art Gallery. Although the Folk Museum is small and has been neglected a bit over the years, the unique variety of ethnic groups and cultures of the hills around Udaipur make this visit well worthwhile. Also visit the Sahelion Ki Bari Garden (Garden for the Maids of Honour). This delightful 18th-century retreat in the north of the city was built for the Queen of Udaipur, whose dowry included 48 maids.

Visit the massive City Palace which overlooks Lake Pichola. The City Palace, built in 1725, comprises of 11 palaces, all of which are ornately decorated. Jaipur was founded in 1727 as Mughal power within India was declining. This was apparently done to imitate the magnificent, red sandstone buildings of the Mughals and in an attempt to impress the Prince of Wales when he visited Jaipur in 1876.

DAY 12: Ranthambhore - Agra

Saturday, 22 November 2025

This morning you will be met and driven to Agra.

En route, you will visit Fatehpur Sikri. Located 40km from Agra, Fatehpur Sikri was built by Emperor Akbar in 1569 after it was prophesied that the then childless Akbar would have sons if he moved his capital to the site. At great expense to the empire, the capital was moved here but sadly only occupied for 14 years before slowly being deserted and ruined after Akbar left the city due to a scarcity of water. Whilst here you visit the remarkably well-preserved and graceful buildings within the Ghost City including the Jama Masjid, tomb of Salim Chisti, Panch Mahal Palace and other palaces that speak of the grandeur and splendour of the Mughal Empire at the height of its power.

Continue to Agra.

On arrival, you will be transferred to your hotel for check in.

The magical allure of the Taj Mahal draws tourists to Agra like moths to a wondrous flame. And despite the hype, it's every bit as good as you've heard. But the Taj is not a stand-alone attraction. The legacy of the Mughal empire has left a magnificent fort and a liberal sprinkling of fascinating tombs and mausoleums; and there's also fun to be had in the bustling markets.

Situated on the West bank of the Yamuna River is the Agra Fort. You will visit this walled compound with your local guide, founded in the 16th century by Emperor Akbar the Great. However, it was during the rule of Shah Jahan that fort took its current form with the construction of two beautiful white marble mosques.

Accommodation: Grand Mercure, Deluxe room or Similar

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 13: Agra - Delhi

Sunday, 23 November 2025

The most iconic sight in India is surely the Taj Mahal and it is for this reason that most people visit Agra.

Rise early to head to the site with your local guide. Experience the Taj Mahal at sunrise to see the gentle light reflecting on the white marble walls making the building glow. Shah Jahan built this mausoleum in memory of his wife Mumtaz and it is a monument to love. Note: For admission to the main mausoleum area you are required to wear shoe covers.

You will return to your hotel for breakfast and to freshen up. You will, later, visit a marble inlay workshop and learn about the intricate skill of laying marble, similar to what you would have seen at the Taj Mahal in the morning.

Later you will be met and driven to Delhi.

Upon arrival, check in to your hotel and enjoy the evening at leisure.

From dawn to dusk, the ghats are thronged by thousands of devotees, who perform their holy rituals in the hope of attaining salvation, the Nirvana.

Later this morning we commence on a brief sightseeing tour of Varanasi. We start by visiting some of the important temples like Bharat Mata Mandir, a unique temple inaugurated by Mahatma Gandhi, which interestingly houses one of the most perfect relief maps of India and is dedicated to Mother India. Daily Touring

Your daily touring will follow the itinerary described. Changes in the order and timing of touring may occur due to local conditions to ensure that your holiday runs smoothly.

This is a privately guided tour and you have flexibility in the timing and pace of your sightseeing. Please inform your guide if there are any parts of your itinerary where you wish to take a longer time and any parts where you would like a faster visit. Your guide will advise how you may adjust timings to fit within your overall itinerary. Please also inform your guide if you wish to pause at any point (for example to take photographs or to take a rest) or if you wish to return early to your hotel. These requests will be accommodated wherever it is practical to do so. If you wish to have a particularly condensed or relaxed itinerary throughout please let us know at the time of booking.

Each piece of cabin baggage is usually limited to a maximum weight of 5kgs and dimensions of about 55 x 40 x 20 centimeters. Allowances may vary by airline. Please note that baggage weight restrictions are strictly enforced for reasons of safety as well as the physical capacity of the aircraft. If your luggage is overweight or oversized, you may incur considerable extra costs and your bags can be delayed as they may not travel with you.

Passengers with special dietary requirements will be required to complete a waiver form to this effect.

Gratuities

Tipping is not included in the cost of your tour. In most countries tipping is a customary part of the travel industry and across Asia this is no exception. The amount of gratuity is discretionary; however we would suggest an appropriate amount to be around £5 - 10 per traveler per day. This should be given to your guide before you depart each destination and this will be shared with your driver. Bellboys in hotels should be tipped about £1. High-end restaurants may expect a tip of 10% but local restaurants will expect less; however review your bill as a service charge may already be applied.

Travel Guide

A travel guide is supplied as part of your departure documentation. This is a generic guide which covers group as well as private travel; however much of the information is still relevant to your itinerary. Please read this guide as it contains some important information. It will allow you to better appreciate the nature of travel in Asia and will help you to maximize the enjoyment of your tour.
